DATE: March 13, 2012

On behalf of Detention Director Tom Fox, Command Staff and the Corrections Officers at J. Reuben Long Detention Center, Horry County Sheriff's Office. I would like to thank both of you and your sponsors on the outstanding job you did in training our officers in survival training and the skills needed in order for our officers to go home safely after their shift is over. All officers were very impressed with the training that was given on those days both of you were here and have commented to other officers outside of our organization on the valuable training they had received. It has truly been a pleasure to know both of you in the short time we first asked you to train our officers, and to know that when we need such training that you both give 110% of your time and skills to the task at hand.

We very much look forward to many more years of your friendship and training skills to be taught at our Detention Center, and hope you continue to provide other agencies with top notch training as well as ours with the skills they need while they are protecting our citizens.

Yours in Service,
